NOTE

The Catholic Directory, now in its eighty-sixth year of publication, was preceded early in the 18th century by the Ordo recitandi Officii Divini, &c. In 1782 were added to the Ordo the conditions for gaining the eight Plenary Indulgences; in 1787 an Obituary of Clergy and Laity; and in 1791 a notice of schools.

In 1793 was issued, by the publishers of the Ordo, the Laity's Directory for Church Service, &c., which, besides directions in English for the Divine Office and the Holy Mass, contained a list of Chapels in and near London. The two publications were continued for nearly fifty years, the Laity's Directory increasing from time to time in the amount of its information.

In 1838 appeared for the first time the Catholic Directory, &c. After a year the Laity's Directory was discontinued; and in 1840 the Catholic Directory, together with the Ordo, was published 'permissu superiorum,' that is, in respect of the Ordo and of the official parts of the Directory, with Episcopal sanction.

Each sheet of the Directory contains, as far as possible, the latest information down to the time of its going to press.

PREFACE

THE CATHOLIC DIRECTORY, ECCLESIASTICAL REGISTER, AND ALMANACK, published with the sanction of the Archbishops and Bishops of England and Wales, appears annually.

All communications for the Editor should be signed and dated, and addressed to the Editor (not to any individual by name) at Archbishop's House, Westminster, London, S.W. 1, not later than October 1st. It is well to use either a cutting from the current issue, or the correction slip to be found at the beginning of this book. Changes of names and other slight changes after October 1st will be inserted as far as may be possible.

The name of diocese and the number of page of the current issue of the DIRECTORY should always be given.

Information that is already correctly stated in the book should not be repeated on the correction slips.

In all cases it is of great practical help to underline any correction or change.

At least one christian name should be given in full, and whenever there can be the slightest doubt as to the spelling of a surname, it is well to use BLOCK letters.

All communications respecting the Notices in Part IV, or the trade Advertisements, should be sent before October 1st, not to the Editor, but to the Publishers, Messrs. BURNS, OATES & WASHBOURNE, Ltd., 28 Orchard Street, London, W. 1.

December 1st, 1922.

In the Church notices, † denotes that it is registered for Marriages.

When two dates are given, the first is generally that of the foundation of the Parish; the second is the date of the existing Church or Chapel.

The last Mass on Sundays, and in many Churches on Holidays of Obligation, is generally a High Mass, or a "Missa Cantata."

In the notices of services, it is found necessary, for want of space, to omit the mention of many minor and occasional services; also to omit other details, in regard to confraternities, &c.

MARRIAGES

In consequence of the Papal Decree 'Ne temere' of August 2, 1907 which came into force at Easter (April 19) 1908, marriages between Catholics, or between Catholics and non-Catholics, must be celebrated before a Bishop or Priest duly authorised for the celebration thereof. Such marriages, if they are not so celebrated, are indeed, for all the civil effects and purposes of marriage, valid and binding legal contracts under the civil law, if the conditions and requirements of the civil marriage-law are fulfilled ; but they are null and void before God, and the parties are not, in the sight of God, husband and wife.

In all civil contracts, the State has power to determine under what conditions they shall be civilly valid. But the marriage of baptised persons is not a merely civil contract ; it is a sacred contract, raised by our Lord Jesus Christ to the dignity of a Sacrament. Therefore, the power of determining the conditions under which the marriage of baptised persons shall be valid before God, and binding in conscience, exists by Divine authority in the Church of Christ and nowhere else.

The solemn celebration of marriages is, by a general law of the Church, forbidden from Ash Wednesday till the day after Easter Sunday and from the 1st Sunday in Advent till the day after Christmas.

Mixed Marriages

A "mixed marriage" (that is, a marriage between a Catholic and one who, though baptized, does not profess the Catholic Faith) may not take place without a dispensation ; and the dispensation cannot lawfully be given unless for a sufficiently grave reason, and subject to the following conditions : 1. That all children that may be born of the marriage shall be baptized, and brought up, in the Catholic Faith. 2. That the Catholic party shall have full liberty for the practice of the Catholic religion. 3. That the Catholic party shall endeavour, especially by prayer and the example of a good life, to convert the other to the Catholic Faith. 4. That no religious marriage ceremony shall take place except in the Catholic Church.

III. THE SACRED COLLEGE OF CARDINALS

The Cardinals, as the advisers and assistants of the Sovereign Pontiff, are the supreme council or senate of the Church. On the death of the Pontiff, they elect his successor.

There are three orders of Cardinals, Bishops, Priests, and Deacons. These orders are distinct from those of the Hierarchy: with very few exceptions, the Cardinal Priests are archbishops or bishops: and the Cardinal Deacons are generally priests.

The Sacred College, when complete, consists of 70 members: 6 Cardinal Bishops, whose Dioceses are the seven 'Suburban Sees,' near Rome; Cardinal Priests, who take their title from the 'Titular Churches' to which they are appointed, with jurisdiction and right to a throne, &c., therein; and Cardinal Deacons, who are appointed to other churches called 'Deaconries.'

The first Cardinal Bishop is Dean, the first of the Priests is First Priest, and the first of the Deacons is First Deacon, of the Sacred College. The Dean has the right of consecrating, and the First Deacon the right of proclaiming and crowning, a new Pope.

On the death of the Pontiff the Cardinal Camerlengo has the administration of the affairs of the Holy See

The 'creation' of a Cardinal sometimes precedes, even by several years, its 'publication' or proclamation. The Cardinal is then said to be 'reserved in petto;' and, when proclaimed, he takes precedence according to date of creation.

II. VICARS-APOSTOLIC IN SCOTLAND, PREVIOUS TO THE HIERARCHY (1878).

The last surviving prelate of the ancient Hierarchy was JAMES BETOUN, Abp. of Glasgow, who went into exile, July 19, 1560; and, though restored to the temporalities of his See by King James VI., Feb. 26, 1598, he never returned to his native land, but died at Paris, April 23, 1603, æt. 79, and was buried there.

For some time afterwards the authority of the English Archpriests extended over Scotland; and when the first Vicar-Apostolic of England was nominated, in 1623, Scotland still remained under English jurisdiction. But in the same year Pope Gregory XV. directed the Vicar-Apostolic to cease from exercising jurisdiction in Scotland; and in 1629 Urban VIII. granted faculties to

F. William Ogilvie, as Prefect of the Mission. He died about 1631, after which Bp. Magennis, of Down and Connor, was placed over the Mission. In 1634 Propaganda decreed the restoration of the ancient bishopric of the Isles; which never was carried out. In Nov., 1635, F. Cornelius Ward, O.S.F., arrived as Prefect; and, on his retirement from the Scottish Mission in 1640, he was succeeded by F. Patrick Hogarty, O.S.F., who, after five years' imprisonment, was forced to return to Ireland, in August, 1648.

In 1653 the Scottish clergy were placed under Prefects-Apostolic by Pope Innocent X.

II. DECEASED CLERGY ASSOCIATION

FOR ENGLAND AND WALES.

This Association is divided into two parts; of which the Northern Division contains seven Dioceses, and the Southern ten. In each Diocese there is a Registrar, appointed to keep a list of the Members in his Diocese, and to send out notices of deaths.

Bishops, whether Secular or Regular, and Secular Priests, become Members of the Association by inscribing their names, either personally or by proxy, upon the list kept by the Registrar of their Diocese. They thereby bind themselves for life to offer a Mass for every deceased Member belonging to the Division, Northern or Southern, to which they themselves belong.

Priests who are permanently transferred from one Division to another, are required to transfer their names to a list of that Division. Those who cease to belong to the jurisdiction of the Bishops in England and Wales lose the benefit of membership. But Military Chaplains retain their right of membership even if they die out of the Division to which they belong; and Priests of the English Colleges abroad, and those who are attached to the Papal Court, may have the benefit of membership by having their names inscribed on the Register of their Diocese.

The Masses of the Association are 'privileged.'

According to a Papal Rescript of April 13, 1869, no Priest can become a Member after three years from the day of his entrance into his Diocese. This restriction, withdrawn by a Rescript of July 5, 1885, was restored by a Rescript of August 15, 1886.

PART III.

§ I.

Dioceses of England and Wales.

CLERGY, CHURCHES AND CHAPELS, &c.,

AND HOURS OF SERVICE.

On the death of the last of the Marian Bishops, in the reign of Elizabeth, the Catholic Hierarchy in England became extinct. The country was ruled for a time by an Archpriest; afterwards by Vicars Apostolic in Episcopal orders, first one for all England, then two, then four, and finally eight (see page 34).

By Letters Apostolic (Universalis Ecclesiæ) of Pius IX, dated September 29, 1850, the English Hierarchy was restored, and the Metropolitan See fixed at Westminster. There were at first twelve Suffragan Sees—Beverley, Birmingham, Clifton, Liverpool, Newport and Menevia, Northampton, Nottingham, Plymouth, Salford, Shrewsbury and Southwark. On May 23, 1861, the title of Hexham was changed to Hexham and Newcastle. On December 20, 1878, the diocese of Beverley was divided by Leo XIII into two, Leeds and Middlesbrough. On May 19, 1882, the new diocese of Portsmouth was formed out of Southwark. By an Apostolic Brief (De animarum salute) of March 4, 1895, the Principality of Wales (except Glamorganshire) was made a separate Vicariate, with a Bishop as Vicar Apostolic. The Vicariate, which had remained attached to the Province of Westminster, was changed on May 12, 1898, to the diocese of Menevia, and became a Suffragan See, the title of Newport and Menevia having been changed in 1896 to that of Newport only. Thus the Province of Westminster had at that time fifteen Suffragan Sees.

By Letters Apostolic (Si qua est) of October 28, 1911, Pius X divided the Province of Westminster into three new Provinces, viz., Westminster, Liverpool and Birmingham, reserving certain special privileges to the Archbishop of Westminster. The other dioceses were re-arranged as follows:

With Westminster remained Northampton, Nottingham, Portsmouth and Southwark. To Birmingham were assigned the, dioceses of Clifton, Newport, Plymouth, Shrewsbury and Menevia; the remaining sees of Hexham and Newcastle, Leeds, Middlesbrough and Salford were assigned to Liverpool.

By Letters Apostolic (Cambria Celtica) of February 7, 1916 Benedict XV raised Newport to Archiepiscopal rank, under the title of Cardiff; and Menevia became a Suffragan See of this new Province.

On March 22, 1917, the county of Essex, which had formerly formed part of the Archdiocese of Westminster, was made by Benedict XV into a separate diocese, and by a Bull (Universalis Ecclesiæ procuratio) dated July 20, 1917, the Episcopal see was fixed at Brentwood, which accordingly became an additional Suffragan See of Westminster.

St. George is Protector of England, St. David Patron of Wales.

NOTICE.

The Second Provincial Synod lays down certain rules for deciding when gifts made to priests are intended for their own private use, and when for the benefit of their mission; but the same rules are not clearly applicable to charitable institutions. In accordance, therefore, with the principles laid down in the Synod for the ease of conscience, all donations, when made to any one in charge of such establishment, shall be considered to be intended for the support and maintenance of such institution, or for the payment of debt, if there be any, unless the donor distinctly declares his donation to be meant for the personal use of those in charge: and whoever receives donations intended for the establishment must without delay pay over such benefactions to the committee or priest in charge, and, in default of such managers, to the Treasurer of the Diocese.

III. ECCLESIASTICAL TITLES AND MODES OF ADDRESS

CARDINALS. His Eminence Cardinal ..... If he is also an Archbishop: His Eminence the Cardinal Archbishop of ..... ; or His Eminence Cardinal ....., Archbishop of ..... My Lord Cardinal, or My Lord ; Your Eminence.

ARCHBISHOPS. His Grace the Archbishop of ..... ; or The Most Reverend the Archbishop of ..... My Lord Archbishop, or My Lord ; Your Grace.

BISHOPS. The Lord Bishop of ..... ; or The Right Reverend the Bishop of ..... ; or His Lordship the Bishop of ..... My Lord Bishop, or My Lord ; Your Lordship. In Ireland, Bishops are usually addressed as The Most Reverend.

An Archbishop or Bishop of a Titular See (see note, p. 18) may be addressed, 1. by his title alone, as other Archbishops and Bishops ; or 2. by his Christian name and surname, followed by the title of his See, or of any office, such as Vicar Apostolic, that he holds, as The Most Rev. (or The Right Rev.) A. B., Archbishop (or Bishop, or Vicar Apostolic) of ..... ; or 3. by his surname only, preceded by Archbishop or Bishop, as The Most Rev. Archbishop (or The Right Rev. Bishop) .....

N.B.—The addition of D.D., or the prefixing of Doctor or Dr., to the names of Catholic Archbishops or Bishops, is not necessary, and is not in conformity with the best usage. When an Archbishop or Bishop is mentioned by his surname, it is better to say Archbishop (or Bishop).....than to say Dr...... ; for the latter title is common to Doctors of all kinds, and does not of itself indicate any sacred dignity or office.

Provosts, Canons.—1. The Very Rev. Provost ..... (surname) 2. The Very Rev. Canon ..... (surname) ; or (Christian name and surname) The Very Rev. Canon A.B.

Protonotaries Apostolic, Domestic Prelates, Vicars-General, Camerieri segreti and Camerieri d'onore (i.e., Privy Chamberlains and Honorary Chamberlains), of His Holiness the Pope, have the title of Monsignore ; and in Latin they are styled Reverendissimi. Vicars-General and, in England, Protonotaries and Domestic Prelates are addressed as Right Rev., and Camerieri as Very Rev.

Monsignore, when followed by the surname, is usually written and pronounced Monsignor.

Mitred Abbots. The Right Rev. Abbot ..... (surname), Right Rev. Father.

Provincials. The Very Rev. Father ..... (surname) ; or The Very Rev. Father Provincial. Very Rev. Father.

Some others (heads of colleges, &c.) are, at least by courtesy, addressed as Very Reverend ; but no general rule can be given.

The title of Father is very commonly given to Secular Priests as well as to Priests of Religious Orders and Congregations.

Dean ..... used thus as a prefix is incorrect. There are no Deans, properly so called, in the Catholic Church in England.

An Army Chaplain is not authorised to describe himself or to be described as "Captain," "Major," etc. The proper mode of address for a Chaplain is "Rev. ....., C.F."

IV.—PRIESTS, SECULAR AND REGULAR, OF GREAT BRITAIN

1. Names not appearing in the diocesan parts of the Directory need for insertion in this list the sanction of Ecclesiastical or Religious Superiors; and a request for their insertion must be sent to the Editor each year.

2. Names of some Priests employed or residing abroad, but ecclesiastically connected with Great Britain, are included in this List.

3. It should be understood that postal addresses are given, and that the post-town is not always that in which the priest is actually stationed.

4. The name of the diocese of Priests of Great Britain unattached, retired, invalided, or permanently living out of their own diocese is generally added in italics.

5. The letters after the names of Regulars, etc., denote the Order of Congregation to which they belong :—

Assumptionists, A.A.; Augustinians, O.S.A.; Benedictines, O.S.B.; Canons Regular of the Lateran, C.R.L.; Congregation of the Holy Spirit, C.S.Sp.; Carmelites, O.D.C.; Cistercian (Reformed), O.C.R.; Congregation of the Mission, C.M.; Dominicans, O.P. Franciscans (Capuchins) O.S.F.C.; Franciscans (Minors Conventual), O.M.C.; Franciscans (Friars Minor), O.F.M.; Institute of Charity, Inst. Ch.; Jesuits, S.J.; Josephites, C.J.; Marists, S.M; Missionaries of Africa or White Fathers, M.A.S.; Missionaries of Mary, C.M.F.; Missionaries of the Sacred Heart, S.C.S.; Oblates of Mary Immaculate, O.M.I.; Oblates of St. Charles, O.S.C.; Passionists C.P.; Pious Society of Missions, P.S.M.; Premonstratensians, C.R.P.; Priests of the Sacred Heart, S.C.J.; Redemptorists, C.SS.R.; Salesians, S.C.; Servites, O.S.M.; Society of the Divine Pastor, S.D.P.; Society of the Divine Saviour, or Salvatorians, S.D.S.

C.F. means Chaplain of the Forces; C.M.G., Companion of the Order of St. Michael and St. George; D.S.C., Distinguished Service Cross; D.S.O., Distinguished Service Order; O.B.E., Order of the British Empire; M.C., Military Cross.

Mgr. here denotes those who, as Domestic Prelates or Chamberlains of His Holiness, or as Vicars-General, have the title of Monsignore; V.G. denotes Vicars-General; an asterisk * denotes those who are addressed as Right Reverend.

STAFF OF CERTIFICATED TEACHERS.

The Convent, with its Church and School buildings, is beautifully situated at a short distance from the sea, and is surrounded by extensive grounds.

Together with the advantages of a superior English education, the pupils have special opportunities for attaining proficiency in modern languages and accomplishments. The late Lady Georgiana Fullerton, when staying with her brother, Lord Granville, at Walmer Castle, used frequently to visit the Church and Convent. Writing to the Tablet, she gave the following appreciation of the education given by the Sisters: "Of the merits of St. Francis of Sales' Daughters, whether as nuns or teachers, little need be said. In his day they were called 'the holy Maries,' and the spirit bequeathed to them by their holy Founder and their first Mother, St. Jane Frances de Chantal, has not departed from amongst them. . . . If parents want for their children bracing sea-air . . . joined to all the other advantages of a good Convent School, they could not find them better supplied than at Roselands."

The air is most beneficial to delicate girls, and the number of the pupils being limited, individual care is given to each child.

For the last twenty-eight years the School has been a private centre for the Oxford Local Examinations, for which, at the desire of the parents, pupils are very successfully prepared, as also for the Honours Certificate in the Higher Local Examination for women, the London Matriculation, the French Examinations—Brevet Simple, Brevet Supérieur, Baccalauréat—and for the Examinations of the Royal Academy of Music.

His Grace the Archbishop of Liverpool, addressing the National Missionary Conference at Westminster Cathedral on October 1st, 1922, said:

"From this day and as a sequence from this great gathering it is important, it is urgent, it is necessary that this branch of the Association for the Propagation of the Faith should grow by leaps and bounds; it is by the order of the Holy Father, to be encouraged by each bishop in his own diocese, and all priests and faithful are expected to respond immediately, generously, zealously, gladly to the invitation held out; and that ought to be so because this matter of preaching the gospel to the world is not a mere duty, but it is a true privilege, and I believe, my beloved brethren, that there are thousands and thousands of British Catholics who are only waiting for the opportunity to know to whom they can offer their subscriptions in order to satisfy their own desire to have a hand in this glorious work. We shall see the membership of the Association grow during the next twelve months."

THE ST. FRANCIS LEPER GUILD.

PRESIDENT: ADELE COUNTESS CADOGAN.

HON. TREASURER AND DIRECTOR:
RIGHT REV. MGR CANON HOWLETT, D.D.

A FEW FACTS ABOUT LEPERS AND LEPROSY.

There are about 2,000,000 Lepers in the world. Nearly all of these Lepers are living in the utmost want and misery. Their misery and suffering cannot be compared to any we have amongst us in England.

Leprosy is a disease that not only causes great physical suffering, it is also so disfiguring and so loathsome that the Leper is in all countries shunned and feared by his fellow creatures. This disease, so far, is well-nigh incurable, although great scientific efforts are constantly being made, and every possible remedy is used to this end.

The ST. FRANCIS LEPER GUILD aims at helping Lepers by placing them in Colonies where Sisters will give them loving care, and where they will be taught to work and help each other as long as they have hands and feet.

The Guild has been able to give considerable assistance to Leper Colonies in British Burma, India, China, Japan and Abyssinia, Colonies which contain in all over 2,000 Lepers. Touching appeals for more help are frequently being received from these countries, and the Guild hopes to respond more generously to further urgent appeals according to the merits of each application. The Leper Colonies not only benefit the Lepers themselves, they benefit the whole world by keeping the Lepers separate from the healthy, and so preventing the increase of the disease, which is gradually creeping westward again.

PLEASE HELP THE GUILD.

1. By becoming a Member and paying 1/- a year subscription.
2. By undertaking to collect the Leper Penny.
3. By paying for the annual support of a Sister (£30) or Leper (£15).

Donations and Subscriptions will be thankfully received and acknowledged by the Hon Sec., Rev. Mother, 27 Claverton-street, S.W.1

Leper Penny Collecting Cards may also be obtained at the same address.

CATHOLIC EVIDENCE GUILD

President—His Eminence Cardinal Bourne, Archbishop of Westminster.
Master—F. J. Sheed, Esq.
Director of Studies—The Rev. J. P. Arendzen, D.D., Ph.D., M.A.
Treasurer—F. E. Caruana, Esq., 14 Girdlers Road, W.14.
Headquarters—The Catholic Evidence Guild Hut, Westminster Cathedral Precincts, S.W.1.

All communications (other than financial) should be addressed to the General Secretary at the Guild Headquarters.

At no moment within the memory of living men, if indeed in history, has the time been more opportune for a wide-spread and ORGANISED EFFORT TO BRING THE CATHOLIC FAITH TO THE MASSES OF THE ENGLISH-SPEAKING WORLD.

There are in this country 34,000,000 non-Catholics but only 4,500 priests to give them the Faith. How is the enormous gulf between the two figures to be bridged?

Here is the problem and THE CATHOLIC EVIDENCE GUILD HAS BEEN FOUNDED TO SOLVE IT.

The C.E.G. is an organization of Catholic lay-men and lay-women established to spread throughout England the teaching of the Church by means of open-air meetings in parks, market-places, streets, and elsewhere.

The Guild consists of Active Members who are (1) Speakers, or (2) Auxiliaries who help in the other activities of the Guild; and of Associate Members who assist the work by special prayer, and by the payment of a minimum annual subscription of one shilling.

SPEAKERS ARE URGENTLY NEEDED. In order to help intending speakers the Guild has organized courses of Lectures in Apologetics, and provides every assistance in matters of study and preparation for the work.

(1) Tuesday, Training Classes for Speakers.
(2) Wednesday, Lecture (arranged by Dr. Arendzen).
(3) Friday, Debates on Tuesday's subject.
(4) In addition a Course of Lectures on the "Summa" is being given by the Dominican Fathers on Thursday evenings.

A Library has been started with the assistance of the Bexhill Library, open on class evenings.

OUTDOOR MEETINGS—SUNDAYS: Hyde Park, 2.30 to 10; Southall, 7 to 9; Hammersmith, 8 to 10; Finsbury Park, 3 to 6; and many other parks and places. WEEKDAYS (mainly evening) Hyde Park, 7 to 10, and elsewhere (see Catholic Gazette).

In all, meetings amounting to 60 hours are held weekly.

All work is voluntary, but subscriptions and donations are earnestly asked for the up-keep of the Hut (the official centre, Lecture Hall, and Canteen of the Guild), for Crucifixes and Platforms, for Books on Apologetics and other Literature for the Library.

All may become Associate Members wherever their home may be, and thus assist in the work.

THE CATHOLIC EDUCATION COUNCIL.

Chairman—Alderman Sir John W. Gilbert, K.B.E., K.C.S.G., K.S.S., L.C.C.

Trustees—The Earl of Denbigh, C.V.O., Viscount FitzAlan of Derwent, P.C., G.C.V.O., D.S.O., and W. J. Fitzherbert Brockholes, Esq., C.B.E., J.P., D.L.

Bankers—The London Joint City and Midland Bank, 69, Pall Mall, S.W.1.

Solicitor—A. G. Ellis, Esq., 4 Raymond Buildings, Gray's Inn, W.C.1.

Secretary and Treasurer—F. R. Anderton, Esq., 2 King's Bench Walk, Temple, London, E.C. 4.

The Catholic Education Council, established in 1905 by the Bishops of England, Wales, and Scotland, represents the Bishops and the Catholic Body in matters which concern Catholic Education. The Council is a modification and continuation, rendered necessary by the Education Act of 1902, of the old Catholic School Committee, which was founded in 1847; and it has also taken over the work of the Secondary Education Council, founded in 1904, which includes the question of Pupil Teacher Centres and Secondary Schools. The Council is recognised by the Government as the successor of the Catholic School Committee for the purpose of representing difficulties which arise between the Managers of Schools and the Board of Education.

The Council has for many years made special grants to schools which, whether "Unnecessary Schools" or "Private Venture Schools" are not recognised by the Board of Education, but are struggling to save Catholic children from non-Catholic Schools.

Their Lordships the Bishops have expressed their conviction that the needs of such schools should be a first charge upon the resources of the Council. More than 50 such small schools, mostly in rural districts, are known to the Council, and the actual number is probably considerably in excess of this figure. The Council decided to expend not less than £1,000 in grants to such schools in 1922.

Another function of the Council is to secure, as far as possible, the efficiency of Catholic Public Elementary Schools by educating a due supply of Trained Teachers, which it does through the means of Training Colleges.

The Training College for men, St. Mary's, Hammersmith, is the property of the Council, and the Council is responsible to the Hierarchy and Board of Education, not only for its efficiency and well-being but also for that part of its expenses not covered by the public grant for Education.

Grants are made to the Women's Training Colleges upon conditions laid down by the Council in 1918.

Upon the supply of teachers depends the prosperity of Catholic schools, the efficiency of their teaching, and their share in the public grant. Any falling off in the efficiency of teachers would at once cause a proportionate loss of this grant.

With the view of further assisting the supply of Catholic teachers, the Council has founded a number of scholarships of the annual value of £35 each.

The Council, at the request of the Bishops, assists them in sundry payments towards the expenses of Ecclesiastical Inspection, and many applications for grants are received from various quarters which cannot be acceded to owing to lack of funds. The Education Act of 1918 has largely increased the obligations of those who are responsible for the education of Catholic children.

It is to be observed that many of the objects above mentioned lie outside the ordinary provision of a diocese for its wants. They regard the whole mass of dioceses viewed as one body. Those who support only local schools fulfil, in consequence, but half their obligation.

Form of Bequest to the Catholic Education Council.

I give to the Catholic Education Council the sum of £ free of legacy duty, to be applied under the direction, and to promote the objects, of the said Council as if the same formed part of the funds arising from voluntary subscriptions, with liberty to apply such legacy as income in aid of the said voluntary subscriptions. And I declare that the receipt of the Chairman of the said Council for the time being shall be a good discharge for the said legacy.

THE CATHOLIC ASSOCIATION.

President—The Right Hon. THE EARL OF DENBIGH, C.V.O.

The objects of the Association are: (1) To promote unity and good fellowship amongst Catholics by organizing Lectures, Concerts, Dances, Excursions, and other gatherings of a social character, and (2) to assist, wherever possible, in the work of Catholic organization, and in the protection and advancement of Catholic interests.

Pilgrimages and Tours are arranged to places of Catholic interest such as Bruges, Lourdes, Rome, and the Holy Land. Continental tickets for individual travel can be supplied, and all kinds of Catholic information may be obtained at the Offices of the Association, where the Catholic papers and books of reference are to be seen.

The minimum subscription to the Association is 2/6 per annum (life membership, two guineas). All communications, subscriptions, etc., should be addressed to W. A. STUART, Honorary Secretary, Catholic Association, King's Chambers, 29-31 Portugal Street, Kingsway, London, W.C. 2.

WESTMINSTER DIOCESAN EDUCATION FUND.

FOUNDED BY CARDINAL MANNING IN 1866.

To provide Reformatory, Industrial, Poor Law and "Special" Schools, and for the Care of Juvenile Adults, etc., in the Counties of London (north of the Thames), Essex, Hertford, and Middlesex.

Certified Schools and Homes.—St. John's Reformatory School for Boys, Walthamstow, E. 17; St. Mary's School for Boys, North Hyde, Southall; St. Charles' School for Boys, Brentwood; St. Vincent's School for Infant Boys, Mill Hill, N.W. 7; Nazareth House School for Boys, Southend; St. Mary's Orphanage for Girls, Walthamstow, E. 17; Orphanage for Girls, Bartrams, Hampstead, N.W. 3; Sacred Heart Orphanage for Girls, Homerton, E,9; St. Joseph's School for Girls, South Road, Southall, W.6; The Manor House (Ophthalmic School) for Boys, Chigwell; St. Anne's Home (Ophthalmic School) for Girls, Portobello Road, W.11; Pield Heath House School for Mentally Defective Girls, Hillingdon; St. Francis' School for Mentally Defective Boys, Hillside, Buntingford; Bigod's Hall School for Mentally Defective Boys, Dunmow; St. Michael's School for Crippled Girls, Clacton-on-Sea; Etloe House for Mentally Defective Girls over 16, Leyton, E.10; St. Elizabeth's School for Epileptic Children, Much Hadham.

To attain fully the objects of the Fund a large permanent income is required. The sums received from the generosity of the faithful are barely sufficient to meet even the most urgent demands of this necessary work; and, moreover, a constant effort is required to increase the number of Contributors, so as to provide against a diminution of income. It is, therefore, hoped that all who have at heart the salvation of thousands of poor Catholic children, and especially of those who, through the neglect or loss of parents, are exposed to more than ordinary spiritual dangers, will, either by annual subscriptions or by donations, co-operate to the utmost of their power in maintaining and extending the annual income of the Fund.

Bankers—London County, Westminster and Parr's Bank, Ltd., Victoria Street, London, S.W. 1.

Auditors—Messrs. Lescher, Stephens and Co., 6 Clements Lane, E.C. 4.

Secretary and Treasurer—T. W. Hunter, M.A., Archbishop's House, Westminster, S.W. 1.

FORM OF BEQUEST

I give to the Westminster Diocesan Education Fund the sum of £ free of legacy duty, to be applied under the direction, and to promote the objects, of the said Society as if the same formed part of the funds arising from voluntary subscriptions, with liberty to apply such legacy as in aid of the said voluntary subscriptions; and I declare that the receipt of the Secretary of the said Society for the time being shall be a good discharge for the said legacy.

THE SISTERS OF CHARITY OF ST. VINCENT OF PAUL,

Carlisle Place, Victoria Street, Westminster.

(Near Victoria Station).

Under the patronage of H. E. Cardinal Bourne.

The House of Charity contains the following works : an orphanage for girls over two years of age, workroom, and an elementary day school for girls ; classes of preparation for first Communion, and catechetical instruction on Sundays for girls, also on alternate Sundays, meetings for deaf and dumb boys and girls ; a night-school for men and boys ; and the daily visiting and relieving of the poor and sick of the two parishes of Westminster, one of the most destitute parts of London.

As these works are supported by voluntary offerings, and the greater number of the children are entirely left on the Sisters' hands, they are compelled to appeal for help, that they may carry on their work.

Yearly subscriptions, however small their amount, would be gladly accepted, and can be remitted to the Sister Superioress, Carlisle Place, Victoria Street, Westminster.

Plain and fine needlework executed in the workroom ; also embroidery and artificial flowers for churches.

A Soup Kitchen has been opened for the benefit of the poor of the two parishes, for which subscriptions in kind or money are most earnestly requested. A Home has been established for a limited number of business girls and servants out of employment.

'SAVE THE DESTITUTE MOTHER AND THE CHILD'

HOUSE OF PROVIDENCE.

"Kelton," Woodlands Road, Aigburth, Liverpool.

UNDER THE CARE OF SISTERS OF THE SACRED HEARTS OF JESUS AND MARY.

The Institution was founded in 1897 by the late Rt. Rev. Mgr. Nugent, its chief object being to provide a safe refuge for destitute unwedded mothers and their infants, and thereby to prevent the prevalent destruction of child life. Infanticide under some of its worst forms has become so widespread that an asylum of this character had long been an urgent necessity. How many unfortunate unmarried mothers have fallen through circumstances rather than choice or wilfulness. Ruined and then cruelly deserted, they seek to hide their shame by resorting to acts from which they would otherwise naturally shrink in horror.

Donations and Subscriptions to be sent to the Rev. Mother, House of Providence, Aigburth, Liverpool. Prayers said daily for all kind Benefactors. Parcels of new or old clothing will be most gratefully received by the Rev. Mother, House of Providence, "Kelton," Woodlands Road, Aigburth, Liverpool.

SHREWSBURY DIOCESAN CHILDREN'S RESCUE SOCIETY.

This Society was established in 1889 to protect and rescue the children of Catholic parents from the danger of losing their faith. It has been the means of rescuing many little ones from the influence of drunken and worthless parents and of placing them in good situations, or finding them homes in Canada. It also directs its efforts to securing the removal to Catholic Poor Law Certified Schools of our workhouse children.

Funds are urgently needed to carry on the good work, and any amount will be gratefully acknowledged by the Hon. Treasurer, Mr. William Hodskinson, 28 Grange Mount, Birkenhead, and any information given by the Hon. Secretary, Mr. E. R. Hoskinson, Solicitor, 22, Water Street, Liverpool, and "Hilgrove," King's Mount, Birkenhead.

INSTITUTE OF TRAINED NURSES OF OUR LADY OF CONSOLATION,

60 Lambeth Road, S.E.1.

(Telephone: City 5865.)

Under the Patronage of

H.E. THE CARDINAL ARCHBISHOP OF WESTMINSTER.
HIS LORDSHIP THE BISHOP OF SOUTHWARK.
THE VERY REV. WILLIAM CANON MURNANE.
THE REV. CHARLES GALTON, S.J.

The object of this Institute is to provide religious trained nurses for the sick. The Sisters visit and nurse the poor of some of the parishes in South London. They have also a private hospital for patients of the middle class. Terms, from 2 guineas; private rooms, from 4 guineas.

The district nursing is entirely gratuitous, and supported by voluntary contributions. Subscriptions and donations will be gratefully received by SISTER CONSTANCE BURD, Superior; also hospital letters, clothing, old linen, etc., for the poor.

"We bless the above-named Institute, and wish it every success." ✠ FRANCIS, January 22nd, 1906. Archbishop of Westminster.

"I hope the Institute of Trained Nurses will increase in numbers. There is plenty of field for this good work in South London." ✠ PETER,
January 26th, 1906. Bishop of Southwark.

ST. MARY'S HOME FOR GIRLS,

(CONVENT OF MARIE AUXILIATRICE),

26 Bow-road, London, E.3.

"We gladly renew the approbation granted by our predecessor and earnestly beg God's blessing on this good work."

May 31*st*, 1908. ✠ FRANCIS, Abp. of Westminster.

Girls are received at the age of 14 and are trained for Needlework, Laundry, and Domestic work. Mothers' Meetings are held, also a club for young men, and for girls. The Home opens its doors daily to school children so as to keep them after school hours away from the dangers of the streets, and provides them with more space and air than they can find in their overcrowded houses. This work brings the Sisters into contact with the parents, and has both religiously and socially very good results. In an adjoining building the Sisters have opened a hostel for teachers and business girls.

There is great need of funds to carry on these various works, and so come to the assistance of God's own little ones; therefore donations, subscriptions and gifts of clothing, etc., will be thankfully received by the Rev. Mother.

THE YORKSHIRE BRETHREN INFIRM SECULAR CLERGY FUND.

President—Very Rev. Canon Russell, Keighley.
Treasurer—Rev. L. McGuire, Catholic Church, Ilkley.
Secretary—Very Rev. F. G. Canon Wood, Catholic Church, Ilkley.

The dioceses of Leeds and Middlesbrough have one common Fund (The Yorks Brethren Fund) for the support of the Secular Clergy, who are Members of the Fund, and who through infirmity of age, or sickness, are incapable of performing missionary duties.

Any person may become a benefactor of the Fund by a donation of £10, for which forty Masses will be said ; or by a donation of £5, for which twenty Masses will be said ; or by a smaller donation for which a proportionate number of Masses will be said, and which will entitle the Benefactor to share in the monthly masses for ever. This does not apply to those who are made Benefactors after their death. In their case Twenty Masses will be offered for Benefactions of £10, and in like proportion for smaller sums. They will, however, have the same share in the Monthly Masses as those who are made Benefactors during their lifetime.

Every priest who is a Member of the Fund, offers the Holy Sacrifice once in each month for all Benefactors living and dead. The number of monthly Masses at present offered for all Benefactors is 200.

THE SECULAR CLERGY COMMON FUND.

FOUNDED IN 1701.

Chief Administrator:

VERY REV. CANON DRISCOLL,
Cardinal Vaughan School, Addison Road, London, W.14.

Administrators:

Very Rev. Canon NORRIS, Very Rev. Canon SHEEN, Very Rev. Mgr. NORTHCOTE, Rev. F. O'FARRELL.

This Fund, whose history carries us back into Penal Times, was established to support Aged and Infirm Priests of the old London District, and is still the main support of such Priests of the four dioceses of Westminster, Southwark, Portsmouth and Brentwood—the old London District—who are members of the Fund.

The continual and, at times, rapid growth of the Secular Clergy working in these four dioceses is, year by year, increasing the demands made upon the resources of the Fund. The Administrators, therefore, feel confident that their appeal to the Catholic laity of the four dioceses on behalf of the sick and aged members of the Fund, who have spent themselves in their service, will meet with a generous response.

2,300 Masses are said every year by members of the Fund for all Benefactors, living or dead.

Donations should be sent to the Very Rev. Canon DRISCOLL, Cardinal Vaughan School, Addison Road, London, W.14.

The following form of bequest is recommended:

"To the Very Rev. James M. Canon Driscoll, D.D., or other the Chief Administrator for the time being of the Secular Clergy Common Fund for the Dioceses of Westminster, Southwark, Portsmouth and Brentwood, the sum of £ (duty free) for the general purposes of the said Fund, and I declare that the receipt of the Chief Administrator shall be a sufficient discharge to my Executor."

SECULAR CLERGY NEW COMMON FUND,

Established in 1803.

Administrators: Very Rev. Canon Egan, Right Rev. Monsignor Canon Howlett, Right Rev. Monsignor Canon Ottley, Right Rev. Monsignor Canon Watson, Very Rev. Canon Palmer.

This Fund helps to support the Aged and Infirm Priests of the Dioceses of Westminster, Southwark, Portsmouth and Brentwood.

Owing to the great increase in the number of priests in these four dioceses, there is a constant demand on the funds of the Society on the part of the sick and aged priests. All Bequests and Donations to this Fund are invested in the names of the Trustees of the Fund, in safe securities, and the interest thereof is allotted to the sick members.

The Administrators earnestly appeal to those who have the means to contribute to this Fund, and thus assist those who have devoted their lives to the spiritual needs of Christ's Flock, but who are temporarily or permanently incapacitated from performing their sacred duties. Over 500 Masses are said annually for the living and deceased benefactors of the Fund.

Subscriptions and donations may be sent to the Treasurer, the Very Rev. Canon Egan, The Presbytery, High Road, Chiswick, W. 4.

The following Form of Bequest is recommended :—

"I give and bequeath to Canon Edmund F. Egan, or to the Treasurer for the time being of the Secular Clergy New Common Fund, the sum of £ , free of legacy duty, to be raised and paid by and out of my personal estate, to be applied towards carrying out the charitable designs of the fund."

MENEVIA SECULAR CLERGY FUND.

This Fund has been established for the relief of Priests of the Menevia Diocese, who, through sickness or old age, have become incapable of performing Missionary duties. Owing to the poverty of the Fund, only a very small allowance can be made to any Priest who may fall sick, and therefore donations are earnestly solicited. All who contribute £1 or more will, for ever, have a share in the Monthly Masses which all the Members are bound to say for benefactors, living and deceased. Those who contribute at least £5 will, in addition to the Monthly Masses in perpetuity, have a corresponding number of Special Masses said for their Intention.

Donations and bequests should be made to the Treasurer, Rev. T. Eadsforth, Catholic Church, Welshpool. Further particulars can be obtained from the President, Rev. Evan Hope, St. Francis of Assisi, Milford Haven ; or the Secretary, Rev. A. O. Pozzi. St. Anthony's, Saltney, near Chester.

THE SECULAR CLERGY FUND FOR THE DIOCESE OF HEXHAM AND NEWCASTLE,

CALLED

THE NORTHERN BRETHREN'S FUND.

ESTABLISHED 250 YEARS.

SUPERIORS:

Very Rev. A. Canon Magill, Brooms, Leadgate, Co. Durham.

Rev. Joseph Thorman, St. Andrew's, Worswick Street, Newcastle-on-Tyne.

Rev. Hugh Cogan, D.D., St. Aidan's, Willington Quay.

Treasurer and Secretary:

Rev. W. Smith, St. Hilda's, Southwick, Sunderland.

This Fund has for its objects the relief and maintenance of Secular Priests belonging to the Diocese of Hexham and Newcastle, who, from sickness, age, or infirmity have become incapable of continuing their Missionary labours.

It is supported partly by the subscriptions of its Members, the Clergy, and partly by the benefactions of the charitable.

Each Member says one Mass monthly for its living and deceased Benefactors, so that upwards of 1900 Masses are offered up each year for this intention.

Persons may become Benefactors by a donation or bequest free of legacy duty of £10 or more; thus helping to make provision for those "who have borne the burden of the day and the heats" in their service, and at the same time availing themselves of the benefits of the Holy Sacrifice of the Altar.

In addition to the 1900 Masses said each year, 20 Masses will be offered specially for the donor on his or her decease. Benefactions may also be made in behalf of the deceased.

Pope Leo XIII., by a Rescript dated 8th June, 1890, granted:—

1.—To the Members and Benefactors, for ever, a Plenary Indulgence at the hour of death, provided they invoke, at least in their heart, the Holy Name of Jesus.

2.—On behalf of all deceased Members and Benefactors for ever, the favour of the "Privileged Altar" for every Mass offered up for them according to the Rules of the Fund.

The Administrators earnestly appeal to the faithful on behalf of this Charity, which preserves their devoted Clergy from want in sickness and old age, after they have spent their health in their apostolic labours.

BIRMINGHAM JOHNSON OR SECULAR CLERGY FUND.

Administrator—Rev. Leonard S. Emery, Coventry.
Secretary—Rev. Walter Poulton, The Presbytery, Solihull, Birmingham.

This Fund has for its object the support of the secular clergy of the Archdiocese, who, on account of age or infirmity, are no longer able to continue their Missionary labours. Any person may become a benefactor by a donation of £10; or he may make another, whether living or dead, a benefactor, by a similar donation on his behalf. Forty Masses are offered for each benefactor, and these may be said, at his option, either before or after his death.

Nearly 200 ANNUAL MASSES are also offered by the Members of the Association for all the benefactors of the Fund, LIVING OR DEAD.

LANCASHIRE INFIRM SECULAR CLERGY FUND.

President—Very Rev. W. Canon Smith, Little Crosby, Liverpool.
Treasurer—Rev. M. Duffy, Westby, Kirkham, Lancs.
Secretary—Rev. J. T. Bousfield, 9 St. Silas Road, Blackburn.

The Dioceses of Liverpool and Salford have one Common Fund for the support of the Secular Clergy, who are members of the Fund, and who through infirmity of age or sickness are incapable of performing missionary duties. A benefactor is entitled to forty special Masses for each £10 he contributes or bequeaths (free of legacy duty) to the Fund. He can, at his option, have these Masses said at the time of payment, or deferred to a future time, as, for instance, till his death, or he can have half the number said immediately and the remaining half deferred.

Every priest who is a Member of the Fund offers the Holy Sacrifice once in every month for all Benefactors and Members, living and dead. The number of Members is now about five hundred, so that Benefactors annually have a share in some six thousand Masses. Donors of less than £10 share in the monthly Masses, but are not entitled to any special Masses.

Further particulars may be had on application to any of the above-named Officers of the Fund.

INFIRM SECULAR CLERGY SOCIETY OF THE ARCHDIOCESE OF CARDIFF.

This Society has for its object the relief of Secular Priests belonging to the diocese, who from age or infirmity have become incapable of continuing their labours. There are comparatively few in this archdiocese who are in a position to contribute largely to the fund; an appeal is therefore made to Catholics generally, in the hope that they will give a generous support to this pressing charity. Two Masses are offered by each member annually for all benefactors, besides one specially, on their decease, for those who have given £10 or more. The committee consists of the following:—Right Rev. Mgr. Canon O'Reilly, V.G., Catholic Church, Penarth; Very Rev. Canon Kelly, Catholic Church, Aberavon; Rev. D. J. Quigley, Cwmbran; Rev. T. Vearncombe, Tredegar; Rev. W. Coonan, Chepstow; to whom, or to the Secretary, Very Rev. D. J. Canon Hannon, St. David's Cathedral, Cardiff, donations and bequests can be made.

CLIFTON SECULAR CLERGY FUND.

This is the only fund (1) for the assistance of Priests temporarily disabled by sickness; (2) for the support of those permanently incapacitated through age or infirmity.

In addition to an annual Mass for all benefactors, living and dead, each member of the Society undertakes the following obligations: Upon the death of a donor or subscriber of £10, one Mass; £25, two Masses; £50 or upwards, four Masses; £1000 or upwards, one annual Mass.

Secretary and Treasurer:
Rev. Richard Iles, St. Joseph's, Bridgwater.

COLLÈGE DE JUILLY,

(Seine et Marne), France.

Tel. 12.

The College of Juilly, one of the most ancient colleges in France, was founded in 1638 by the Reverend Father de Condrey, of the "Oratoire," and was erected by King Louis XIII as a Royal Institution. It is situated near the magnificent forests of Ermenonville, Chantilly, Compiègne and Villers-Cotterets, at only half-an-hour's distance from Paris, and is reached by the Northern Railway (Gare du Nord).

In principle, the College of Juilly may accept only such English pupils as belong to the Roman Catholic Church. Ever since its commencement it has been noted for the number of eminent men who have received their education within its walls. For England and Ireland alone, the Honours List of the College shows us over 100 names of young men of illustrious families: Howard d'Arundel, Norfolk, Talbot, Duke of Berwick, Duke of Albemarle, Duke of Monmouth, etc. Juilly joins to the prestige of a universal reputation a true understanding of the necessities of modern life. The Teaching Staff consists of both Ecclesiastic and Lay Masters who are provided with degrees in Sciences, History, Languages. French, German, Italian, Spanish. Music (Piano, Violin, 'Cello), Singing, Elocution and Dancing are taught by qualified artists from Paris.

The College stands in the middle of an extensive park of 45 acres, which is open to the pupils and used for games, Tennis, Football, etc. An abundant and pure spring of fresh water, which, upon analysis has been declared to resemble the water of Vittel, supplies the College, and also provides a lake of about five acres, upon which pupils are allowed skating in winter and boating in summer. The buildings cover an area of over 11,000 square yards, with large playgrounds, fencing, and gymnastic halls.

The Headmaster may be seen every Tuesday, from 2 to 4, in Paris: 5, rue Guy-Patin (near Gare du Nord).

The Incorporated Society of Musicians

Founded 1882 Incorporated 1892

ORIGIN AND GENERAL AIM

THE Incorporated Society of Musicians was founded in 1882 for the purpose of providing a comprehensive organisation which would represent every branch of the musical profession. The Society admits to its roll of members all qualified musicians, whether performers or teachers, thus recognising the essential unity of all forms of musical activity. The Society does not wish to discourage or impede any organisation that already exists; it seeks rather to furnish a means of attaining those objects which are sought by all musicians who value the prestige of their art. Unity and co-operation are essential if these objects are to be attained, and therefore the Society invites all qualified musicians to join its ranks.

LOCAL EXAMINATIONS IN MUSIC

The Examinations of the Society, established in 1884, constitute a most valuable guide to Heads of Educational Institutions and to Teachers in recording the progress of their pupils. The distinctive features of the Examinations are:—

SYLLABUS.—This is prepared by a Committee of Experienced Teachers, and the whole course of Technical Instruction is explained in the preface.

RESULTS.—The result of the Examination is not sent to the Teacher or Candidate in a mere award of marks. Full details are given of the examiners' remarks and the reasons for the award. This is invaluable as an aid to the further instruction of the Candidate.

MUSIC.—The music contained in the Syllabus has mostly been specially written for the purpose. There is a wide selection possible in the various grades, and the Exercises and Studies have been selected with a view to the mastery of certain technical difficulties.

SCHOLARSHIPS.—A certain number of Scholarships are awarded each year to Candidates who present exceptional work at the examinations. The Scholarships take the form of a Grant towards the further musical education of the Candidate, and is payable either to the Head of the Institution or to the Teacher.

CENTRES.—Centres are held at most of the large towns in the United Kingdom, and Special Centres at Convents and Schools are arranged to suit the convenience of Candidates.

Full particulars, Syllabus, and copies of Recent Scholarship Awards may be obtained on application to The General Secretary, 19 Berners Street, London, W.1

BY JOHN AYSCOUGH

(The Rt. Rev. Mgr. Count Francis Bickerstaffe-Drew.)

FIRST IMPRESSIONS IN AMERICA. With Portrait of Author. Demy 8vo, cloth 16*s. net. (By post* 16*s.* 6*d.)*
This volume is the outcome of John Ayscough's recent visit to America. It gives the impressions he formed as the result of his tour throughout the Union. So observant a visitor as John Ayscough could never find himself upon a new Continent without the taking of many and copious notes, and, as a result, the book is rich in material which, from his ever-present sense of what is whimsical and humorous, is never dull.

THE FOUNDRESS. Crown 8vo, cloth, 8*s.* 6*d. net. (By post* 9*s.)*
"THE FOUNDRESS" is concerned with the present century and the present reign. Like all Ayscough's books this new novel contains, as its pivot, the presentment of one central character—that of the heroine. There are many other characters, male and female, all treated with that subtle comprehension which constitutes the peculiar gift of this writer.

FERNANDO. Cr. 8vo, cloth, 4*s.* 6*d. net. (By post* 5*s.) New Edition.*
John Ayscough strikes a more intimate personal note than usual in this work, which is in effect the autobiography of the author presented in the guise of fiction. It contains the first phase of the author's life up to the time of his conversion and his leaving Oxford. It supplies the demand made by many for the story of Ayscough's adventures on the road to Rome.

THE TIDEWAY. Crown 8vo, cloth, 7*s. net. (By post* 7*s.* 6*d.)*
Countless thousands have been captivated by his novels in the past and in "THE TIDEWAY" we have in abundant measure the characteristic and stimulating pictures of life which give to this author his special niche in the temple of present-day fiction.

MR. BEKE OF THE BLACKS. F'cap 8vo. 2*s. net, bound. (By post,* 2*s.* 4*d.)*
The numerous requests for a cheap edition of this novel have induced the publishers to produce it in popular form.

ROBERT BUCHANAN'S MOST POPULAR NOVEL
Sales exceed 100,000 copies.

FATHER ANTHONY

In Two Editions. Demy 8vo, 128 pages, paper cover, 9*d. net. (By post,* 1*s.) F cap 8vo, 256 pages. Bound* 2*s. net. (By post,* 2*s.* 4*d.)*

Daily Graphic says: "A vivid romance of the present day, the scene of which is set in an Irish village. It is concerned with that always engrossing problem: Should a priest who has obtained information under the seal of confession persist in withholding that information from the minions of the law, even though withholding it means the sacrifice of an innocent man who is under sentence of death? It is a very dramatic situation worked out in very dramatic fashion."

The Irish Ecclesiastical Record

A Monthly Journal under Episcopal Sanction

THE PRIESTS' PROFESSIONAL JOURNAL

THE IRISH ECCLESIASTICAL RECORD is the only monthly Review in the United Kingdom specially devoted to the interests of Priests. Since its first appearance in 1864 it has been in the front rank of Catholic publications, and in its present enlarged and improved form it is recognised as the foremost professional Review of the English-speaking Catholic Clergy throughout the world. Few Reviews, indeed, can claim a distribution so widespread as the I. E. RECORD. It is patronised by and circulates largely among the Prelates and Priests of Ireland, Great Britain, the United States, Canada, Australia, New Zealand, India, South and West Africa, and counts also a large number of lay supporters.

A very useful permanent feature is the collection of official DOCUMENTS emanating from Rome—Decrees, Decisions, Papal Pronouncements, etc.—which are reproduced in the I. E. RECORD, according as they are issued. By this means its readers are provided with a convenient chronicle of all the important acts of the Vatican.

IT WAS ALMOST INEVITABLE that the PELICAN PRESS should be chosen to Print the Address of Congratulation on his election presented to his Holiness Pope Pius XI by the Cardinal Archbishop, the Archbishops, and the Bishops of England and Wales.

BOOKPLATES

EVERY BOOK-LOVER should have his own bookplate. The owner of a coat-of-arms has his design already, and for others there is a wide field of symbolic and pictorial design. A bookplate should express its owner in some way: the mere adding of a name to a pretty but irrelevant drawing does not make a bookplate. Enthusiasms, tastes, portraits, &c., or one's life work, all suggest attractive material for design. What more appropriate than one's name-saint, for example? A well-formed monogram makes an unassuming bookplate. The following are typical of cost: Heraldic bookplates finely engraved on copper from £4 10s. A monogram as illustrated £2 10s. One of similar character to "Grover" would cost from £5. Costs include 100 prints; extra prints at negligible cost. The two examples on this page are half actual size. Those who need a unique bookplate of expressive design should write to—

BLACKFRIARS

Monthly One Shilling Net

Yearly Twelve Shillings Post free

THE DOMINICAN MONTHLY

BLACKFRIARS was inaugurated in April, 1920, by the Dominican Friars of the English Province in response to the general demand for a Review representing their traditional teaching in Religion, Philosophy, Science and Art, and its application to the needs of to-day.

The aim of BLACKFRIARS is to state in a form intelligible to modern readers the primitive and traditional principles of the Catholic Church, and to apply these principles to the peculiar needs of the present day.

In Religion BLACKFRIARS stands for the continuity of God's intimate relations with mankind, as testified in the Old and New Testaments and in the history and authority of the Catholic Church.

In the discussion of present day religious differences BLACKFRIARS, according to Dominican tradition, presumes the good faith of an adversary and asks for a like presumption from him, confident that a full and frank discussion of differences under these conditions will secure the triumph of the Truth which is greater than either of the conflicting minds.

In Philosophy and Science BLACKFRIARS stands for the validity of human thought in a priori and a posteriori processes of reasoning and for the necessity of experience and experiment as the groundwork of all syntheses and the test of all hypotheses.

In Art BLACKFRIARS upholds the relationship between the rules of human conduct and the rules of human production and the dependence of both on the END of human nature whence all Goodness, Truth and Beauty are derived.

MARVELLOUS COMPLETENESS
VIRTUALLY NO REFERENCES

The only publication which can prove, beyond all criticism, a perfect claim to ——the much-envied title——

The Home Breviary

Young priests will find it the ideal edition to begin with, while many of the older Rev. Clergy, who have smaller breviaries for travelling purposes only, find true home comfort alone in the use of their Tours when reciting the office in their study. It is not surprising, therefore, to hear clergymen remark that it makes its reading an unalloyed pleasure.

Accuracy, large clear type, orderly and practical arrangement, portability, unsurpassed press work on the finest English India paper procurable, and solid elegant bindings, are other noteworthy features of this perfected edition.

Also 18mo. Breviary with all the New Offices.

NEW MISSALS

INCLUDING ALL THE NEW MASSES.
Four sizes; 4to, small 4to, 8vo, 18mo.

MISSALE DEFUNCTORUM.

The text of Mame's Missals is so arranged as to render it most practical and as convenient as possible for the celebrant.

1. The Introit, the Prayer, the Secret and the Post Communion are never carried from one page to another.

2. The prayers Pro diversitate temporum are always on one page, or two pages facing; thus one marker suffices to find them.

3. To obviate the celebrant having to go back to the preface in order to read the Communicantes proper for certain feasts, and to prevent him forgetting them, the beginning of the Canon, including the Communicantes, has been printed after the preface of each of these feasts, with the rubrics; and in order to have this improvement practical for the low masses, the preface sine cantu has been repeated after the one with music.

4. When simple feasts are fixed for the same day as another feast, the simple feast is inserted in the body of the principal mass.

5. Headings in italics serve to distinguish Commemorations from the principal prayers.

Etc., etc.

Mame's Missals are perfectly legible. The binding gives a guarantee of durability and solidity.

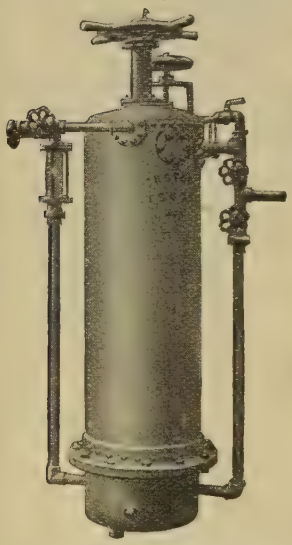
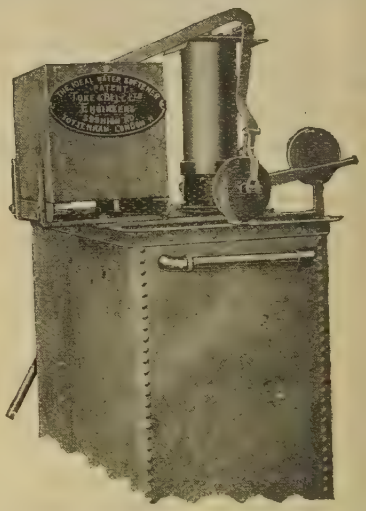
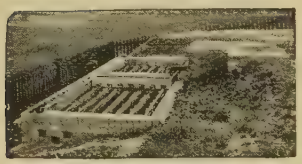
PURIFICATION OF WATER AND SEWAGE



Water Filter.





Sewage purification installation for Convents, Houses and Isolated Buildings.

Cesspools are a menace to health. By our scientific process a foul sewage is gradually converted to a liquid free from smell, comparable to rain water in appearance, incapable of causing a nuisance, and safe to deliver to any ditch or on to land. Do not pollute your land with a crude sewage overflow.

For many years we have specialised in the purification of sewage for Country Houses and Institutions, as also in the provision of water softening apparatus and water filters.

The softening of hard water reduces laundry costs, eliminates furring of pipes and produces a delightful water for ablution purposes.

Most well waters require filtration to be safe. These questions of pure water and purified sewage are vital to the health and interest of all who live in country areas.

Dear Sir,

Allow me to offer my very hearty congratulations re the Boiler recently put up here. It heats the Church, House and School most efficiently. The old one put in here by your Firm did well for over 30 years, but this one is a marvel of success, with much less trouble and care. It gives perfect satisfaction to all.

Yours sincerely,

HAVE YOUR SCHEMES CARRIED OUT BY A RELIABLE FIRM.

The heating and the ventilating of a building is most important; whether church or school, the greatest care is needed: the most efficient plant is the one that requires little and unskilled attention.

St. Barnabas', Nottingham, December 20th.

DEAR MR. STUFLESSER.

I cannot refrain from sending you a few lines to express my great pleasure and satisfaction with the Episcopal Throne which you have erected in our Cathedral. The design is beautiful, and every detail has been worked out with a care and skill which approaches perfection. It is strong and stately, yet is full of lightness and grace; and you have earned my grateful thanks for the attention, skill and patience which must have been given in every part to produce so perfect a work. Believe me, my dear Sir, yours very sincerely in Jesus Christ.

PY OF OFFICIAL NOTIFICATION OF RESOLUTIONS OF THEIR LORDSHIPS THE BISHOPS OF ENGLAND AND WALES.

ALTAR CANDLES.

ttention is called to the fact that the Bishops of England and Wales, at a meeting held on December 4th, 1906, resolved as follows:—

"The Bishops, having before them the Rescript of the S. Congrega-n of Rites, of December 14th, 1904, resolved to instruct the Clergy and hers that the Paschal candle, the two candles for Low Mass, the six ndles for High Mass, and the candles obligatory for Benediction of the essed Sacrament, must contain at least 65 per cent. of genuine beeswax, d all other candles placed upon the Altar at least 25 per cent.

They decided to direct that all candles, to be used as above, be aranteed by the makers, and bear stamped upon them the percentage beeswax they are so guaranteed to contain."

These decisions will come into force throughout the Province not er than March 25th, 1907, and we desire them to be observed in this ocese with as little delay as possible.

A few useful Hints to users of Sanctuary Oils.

To obviate the difficulty which is sometimes experienced in keeping the Sanctuary Lamp alight, FRANCIS TUCKER & Co. LD. venture to make the following suggestions :—

(1) When replenishing the lamps always see the wicks are dry and firmly fixed to the holder. The glasses and oil filler must be perfectly dry and clean, and no dregs or blacks from the wicks allowed to remain.

(2) On no account should water be put into the Sanctuary glass with the oil, or any other quality oil mixed with it.

(3) Never empty a fresh can of oil into the old can.

(4) Dregs from the Sanctuary glass should not be poured back into the can, or the oil will cease to do its work satisfactorily.

(5) As oil is easily affected by change of temperature, and likely to become chilled and thick, especially in Winter, it should be kept in a warm, dry place (say 60° to 70°) and properly corked.

I strongly recommend my 95% Pure Beeswax Candles as being more conformable to the spirit of the Catholic Church, and more economical than any others.

They are only the same price as the 65% candles sold in England, but they burn 25, 30, and even 40% longer!

ST. PHILIP NERI'S, LIVERPOOL,

Dear Mr. Kavanagh,

Just a line to express how pleased I am with the "Manchons."

I have been using them since last March for Quarant Ore Candles and Benediction Candles. I would not be without them. As protectors against draught and guttering of candles they are the best article in the market. They are easy to manipulate and once placed properly on the candles they scarcely ever require any attention.

I can testify, likewise, to their durability, as out of more than 150 I have had only two breakages.

My great surprise is that a manufacturer of candles should have invented such a method of economy, apparently against his own trade.

Yours sincerely, A. JEANRENAUD.

OUR LADY'S, ELDON PLACE, LIVERPOOL,

Dear Mr. Kavanagh, March 6th, 1914.

It will, I am sure, be a pleasure to you to know that everyone who saw your candles at our Quarant Ore considered that they were simply perfect.

The effect of the "Manchon" was wonderful. Not a particle of wax was to be seen anywhere either on the carpet or on the alter itself.

The steady flame with which the candles burned gave one almost the impression that a number of electric lights were illuminating the sanctuary.

It is quite evident that these effects are to be attributed not only to the "Manchons" but to your candles which are especially made for the "Manchon," and whose excellence therefore cannot be surpassed.

Kind regards, Yours sincerely,

(Signed) J. O'BRIEN.

(The above are merely typical of many, received from every quarter.)

A PERSONAL NOTE.

The beginning of another year approaches, and once more I prepare my yearly Catalogue with the necessary modifications and additions to bring it up to date.

The Country has passed through its General Election and now that the Political atmosphere is cleared, it seems to be the General impression that if public confidence is restored, as I have every hope and belief it will, we can look forward to an era of trade revival although such may be much slower and more gradual than we all would wish, owing to the condition of the World's markets.

Every business of magnitude has experienced more or less difficulty in trading, but I am pleased to say that owing to my extensive connections in obtaining supplies of raw materials, and to the fact that practically everything listed in the Catalogue is made upon my own premises and under my personal supervision, the requirements of my patrons have always been fully met.

The splendid reputation associated with my firm ever since its establishment in 1845, is a sufficient guarantee that every attention is given to the smallest enquiry; my interest in any transaction in fact is not concluded until complete satisfaction has been acknowledged.

Suggestions from Patrons are always welcomed and receive careful consideration.

My long and intimate connection with Church work and my practical knowledge of all the details of the manufacture of Altar Candles and Church Furniture specially equip me for readily understanding my customers' ideas and providing the articles required. Call at my Showrooms and select for yourself. Rest assured that your order by post will receive the same care and consideration as if you personally called and made your own selection.

In presenting this Price List for 1923, I ask my Patrons to accept my best thanks for their past favours and solicit their confidence and support.

Yours faithfully,

Charles Farris

The only actual Candle Manufacturer in the City of London.

The Evolution of the Altar Candle.

A Treatise upon Genuine Air Bleached Bees Wax, the preparation and making of Farris's Altar Candles.

Illustrated by Photographs of the actual processes of manufacture.

Times have considerably changed since the Ancients employed wax tablets for writing purposes. The characters were produced by the sharp end of a stylus and, after serving their purpose, were obliterated by the other end. Sculpturing in wax was well known to the Greeks and Romans and was much practised by Italian Artists of the Renaissance. In the fourteenth and fifteenth centuries Artists of repute used this material to give expression to their ideals, and wax portrait medallions were very fashionable in Italy and other Latin countries during the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries. There are some very beautiful examples of wax portraits in the famous Wallace Collection, but probably the only survival of this once popular form of model portraiture is to be found at Madame Tussaud's.

To those to whom this treatise appeals bees wax is the most interesting owing to its being so largely used for the manufacture of Altar Candles. This wax is secreted by bees, and with it the wall cells of their comb are made. Each one is cylindrical at first, but owing to the weight of successive layers, becomes hexagonal in shape. The comb when drained of the honey is separated from any impurities attached to the comb by melting in boiling water and afterwards the wax is collected from the surface when cold. The bees wax so treated is known as of a natural yellow colour, the tint varying according to the different flowers, etc., from which it is collected, but for many purposes it has to be bleached. This is accomplished by the following process :—

Great vats of bees wax are heated to a definite temperature by means of coiled steam pipes placed inside. The contents are afterwards run into a cylindrical tank pierced with holes, somewhat like a colander. This is placed at one end of a sheet of running water and the effect of contact with the cold water upon these innumerable streams of fluid wax from the tank is to flatten and solidify them into thin ribbons, which are carried along with the stream and pass over a revolving drum immersed in the water at the other end, into baskets. The wax ribbons so collected are then spread out in thin layers on huge canvas sheets stretched on posts in the ground in order to be fully exposed to the sun's rays and air. The ribbons of wax are turned over from time to time and sprayed with cold water, but the sun's rays not penetrating to the centre, the outside only becomes white. When this yellow surface colour has disappeared, the wax is re-melted and the treatment repeated over and over again until a uniform white colour is obtained throughout the mass. When sufficiently white right through it is removed from the canvas sheets to the vats where it is finally melted and formed into discs or blocks. In this Process the discs of bees wax are carried along automatically until they fall into an immense tank of cold water. From this they are collected and placed upon edge in wire netting trays to dry in the open, and continue bleaching until perfectly white.

Bees wax in its unbleached condition is of a hard solid nature, possessing a faint sweetish odour, but no taste. Pure white bees wax consists to the extent of nearly 80 per cent. of Cerotin soluble in boiling alcohol, with nearly 20 per cent. of an insoluble wax substance called Myricin and a small proportion of Cerolein, which imparts hardness to the mass. It is somewhat transparent, tasteless and odourless and its melting point is about 145 deg. F. Pure white bees wax has emollient properties and in medicine is chiefly employed as an ingredient in ointments. The yellow wax is also used for plasters and ointments.

It has been stated, especially of late, that genuine air-bleached bees wax was unobtainable owing to the Continental supplies having been exhausted and to the impossibility of replenishing stocks through the War. Mr. Charles Farris, however, is in the happy position of being able to supply large quantities of the genuine air-bleached article owing to his control of a quaint old-world factory, where the ancient methods of collecting and treating bees wax continue to be placidly carried out by the elderly men employed as in the centuries gone before.

Any process which will shorten time is largely adopted by manufacturers in all branches of industry and bees wax is no exception to the rule. To bleach by the sun's rays takes several weeks, but only a short time when chemically treated. The latter process is objectionable because it not only injures the material, but, where bleaching powder is used, the whole of the Chlorine is not removed. Each form has its special uses, but the advantages of air-bleached over chemically-bleached bees wax for candle making are obvious.

One of the oldest City Guilds is the Wax Chandlers' Company, which received its charter of incorporation as far back as 1483, from Richard I. Its members carried on their individual businesses for hundreds of years mostly congregated in Candlewick Street—now known as Cannon Street—Bishopsgate and their precincts. The Ward of Candlewick still survives to remind us of the past, and it was here the candlewright or maker of candles and the makers of the cotton wicks flourished side by side in the "wike" or market.

As each century brings its changes, so these have affected the candle-making industry, and to-day there is only one factory in the City of London where bees wax melting can be seen in operation and where bees wax candles are actually made.

Mr. Farris is always pleased to show his Patrons how Altar Candles are made on his own premises; letters making appointments with this object should give twenty-four hours notice. To those unable to accept this invitation the following descriptive particulars will be of interest.

The Altar Candle.

The Primitive Candle.

From very earliest times the word candle denoted any kind of taper in which a wick, frequently consisting of a strip of papyrus, was encased in wax or animal fat. In some cases the pith of a kind of rush was used, whilst in the early Anglo-Saxon period candles were merely masses of fat plastered around splinters of wood.

The oldest recorded materials used in the making of candles were beeswax and tallow, but during comparatively recent years many other substances have been utilised. For hundreds of years it has been the custom of the Church to adopt them as part of her service for the purpose of enhancing the splendour of religious ceremonial.

As may be imagined from the character of materials used, the early methods were of the most primitive nature. As time went on greater care and skill were exercised, for Church purposes in particular, but fundamentally the making of candles by hand at the present day is somewhat similar to that which has been in vogue for hundreds of years.

The Making of the Candle.

In the process of manufacture about forty equal lengths of woven cotton are hung at equal distances around a hoop some 2 ft. 6 in. in diameter. This is suspended over a large pan of melted wax from which a workman takes a filled ladle and pours the contents down each length of cotton in turn. The wax soon cools on the cotton, and by the time the first one treated is brought directly over the pan again it is ready to receive a further addition of wax. In this way the candles are made to whatever diameter is required.

The candles in this rough state are then removed from the frame or hoop, rolled by workmen on wooden benches, and finished on finely polished marble tables. The ends are cut and that which is to be lighted dexterously manipulated and tapered. Such work can only be intrusted to experienced and expert workmen.

The Ordinary Candle.

The texture and thickness of the cotton forming the wick are very important parts of a candle, and in order to secure perfect burning it is necessary that the size of the wick should bear a direct relationship to the diameter of the candle, otherwise too little or too much wax fuel will be supplied to the flame, and give rise to smoking and other unsatisfactory results.

With ordinary candles the wick is of cotton plaited or woven somewhat flat, so that when the candle is burning that portion of the wick which has finished duty as a medium for conveying the melted wax to the flame by capillary attraction curves, and, projecting outside, becomes oxidized by coming into contact with the surrounding air. The curl usually produced is very pronounced and is generally one of the chief causes of guttering. The heat from the flame at the end of the curl melts the side of the solid wax cup at the top of the candle, which retains the melted wax ready for absorption by the wick.

The Perfect Candle.

In Farris's candles the wick is specially woven to a pattern found by years of experience to produce a curve just sufficiently out of perpendicular to ensure perfect wick oxidation without disturbing the wall of the wax cup. By this means it is entirely dissipated and perfect combustion results.

The above circumstances, coupled with the personal care and supervision bestowed, no doubt largely contribute to the reasons why Farris's Altar Candles burn with such a pure, soft, and brilliant light.

Farris's Altar Candles.

Guaranteed Genuine Air-Bleached Bees Wax.

(All Hand Made).

CHARLES FARRIS'S Bees Wax Candles are all hand made and are stamped at the base with the guaranteed percentage mark in colours, viz.: Yellow, 75 %; Red, 65 %; Green, 25 %. This method is the most convenient to Sacristans and others in charge of Candles for the Altar. Should perchance the figures be difficult to decipher, it is easy to know the percentage of Bees Wax by the colour of the stamp. Further, to simplify matters, all Candles are labelled the colour of which corresponds to that of the stamp indicating the percentage. In this way a glance suffices to show the extent of the stocks of the various grades.

Self-Descending. With air cooling chamber. (Registered).

SUCCESS GUARANTEED WITH FARRIS'S BEES WAX CANDLES.

The above simple registered device is claimed to be the only one which effectively prevents the guttering of bees wax altar candles in a draught. It requires no attention and works automatically, so that when once placed upon a candle it needs no further attention; it has been subjected to the severest tests, both indoors and out, and is hardly distinguishable from the candle itself, owing to its perfect candle colour.

ARCHBISHOP'S HOUSE,
HILL STREET,
WELLINGTON, N.Z.
July 25th, 1913.

Mr. CHARLES FARRIS,
71, Bishopsgate, London, E.C.

Dear Sir,

I am enclosing herewith a draft on the Bank of New South Wales, Threadneedle Street, London, for the sum of forty-nine pounds ten shillings, in payment of my account with you.

All the parishes of the archdiocese (Wellington) have now been supplied, and the Rectors are greatly pleased with the new Oil Stocks. I have also placed one set in the adjoining diocese of Christchurch, so that you may possibly get orders from there. I think it would bring you excellent business if you sent special circulars (with illustration as in your catalogue) to the Bishops and Vicars Apostolic of all the Sees in this Southern Hemisphere.

I am, yours faithfully,
JAS. P. M. HICKSON.

BISHOP'S HOUSE,
PETERSBURG,
SOUTH AUSTRALIA,
11th October, 1910.

Mr. CHARLES FARRIS,
71, Bishopsgate, London, E.C.

Dear Sir,

I received the sets of Holy Oil Stocks safely. I am very pleased with them, and I consider they are well worth the money. I would like to see them in every Church for the safe and decent keeping of the consecrated oils.

* The only drawback in connection with the obtaining of the stocks here is the high duty we have to pay. The cost of the three sets through the customs to me was £2 1s. 8d. It was useless to represent that they are for Church services only. I enclose Bank Draft for £9 9s. 6d.

Believe me to be,
Yours very truly in Xt,
✠ JOHN H. NORTON,
Bishop of Port Augusta.

* Charles Farris desires to state that he now undertakes to deliver the "Holy Oil Stocks" to destination in any part of the world free of all charges.

LITURGY FOR LAYFOLK

A NEW AND UNIFORM SERIES OF THE LATIN-ENGLISH TEXTS, FINELY PRINTED THROUGHOUT IN RED AND BLACK.

THE publication of " The Missal for the Laity," in Latin and English, with the rubrics printed in their traditional colour, was made possible by that revival of interest in Liturgy which distinguishes the Catholic layfolk of this time and of this country. To have a part in the development of this liturgical movement, to supply its demand for certain books, to forestall and so to stimulate its desire for others, and also to attempt to revive in current liturgical printing those true traditions of craftsmanship which have been obscured for two hundred years, has now become the publishing policy, as it has long been the ambition, of Messrs. Burns Oates & Washbourne. All the volumes of the series are uniform in size and typography with " The Missal."

THE DAY HOURS OF THE CHURCH. The complete text of the Horæ Diurnæ in Latin and English. Edited by the Benedictines of Stanbrook Abbey. With an Introduction by Abbot Fernand Cabrol, O.S.B. Printed on toned Oxford India paper, about 1,000 pages. From 9/- to 18/6.

THE MISSAL FOR THE LAITY. The latest edition has been completely revised, and contains supplements giving the special Masses for British dioceses and the Religious Orders. Prices 6/- to 40/-.

THE RITE OF MARRIAGE, THE NUPTIAL MASS AND BLESSING, and the new Blessing without the Mass. With an Instruction on the significance of the Sacrament by His Lordship Bishop Butt. Wrappered. 1/-.

THE LITTLE OFFICE OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY. In conformity with the edition of the revised Roman Breviary. Prices from 2/- to 8/-.

THE LAYFOLK'S RITUAL. The Complete text, in Latin and English, of all those Offices of the Ritual at which layfolk have occasion to assist. With an Historical Introduction to each Office by Abbot Fernand Cabrol, O.S.B. Prices 4/- to 12/6.
